If clarification of your situation is necessary, additional information or documentation may be required.

Purpose

Use this form to request a review of your dependency status due to unusual circumstances. Dependency appeals are only approved for documented unusual circumstances (i.e., abuse, abandonment, etc.).

Processing requirements

The Higher Education Act allows an aid administrator to make dependency overrides on a case-by-case basis for students with unusual circumstances. However, none of the conditions listed below, singly or in combination, qualify as unusual circumstances or merit a dependency override:

1. Parents refuse to contribute to the student's education.
2. Parents are unwilling to provide information on the application or for verification.
3. Parents do not claim the student as a dependent for income tax purposes.
4. Student demonstrates total self-sufficiency.

Unusual circumstances do include an abusive family environment or abandonment by parents and may cause any of the above conditions. In such cases, a dependency override might be warranted.

If there are no unusual circumstances that would qualify you for a dependency review, you must correct your FAFSA and include your parent's information on it.

Instructions

1. You must complete the 2024–2025 FAFSA online at fafsa.gov and ensure you answer “yes” to the Student Unusual Circumstances question before submitting this form. You will receive an email from the U.S. Department of Education explaining that your FAFSA is in a provisional status due to not submitting your parent information. Your FAFSA will remain in a provisional status until a dependency override has been processed and approved.
